REGISTRATION AND RECORDATION CERTIFICATES:

1. Only goats registered with ADGA, AGS, or CGS are eligible to compete. Those goats who have applied for registration with the above organizations may also compete.
2. A registration/recordation certificate or the stamped duplicate showing the date received by ADGA office is required for any animal under 6 months of age.
3. A registration/recordation certificate is required for any goat 6 months of age or older.
4. No copies of the registration/recordation certificate or the stamped duplicate shall be accepted by show officials.
5. The document specified above as the requirement of the animal of that age to be shown must have been presented to the show secretary before judging begins.
6. Proof of ownership shall be the name on the registration/recordation certificate or the stamped duplicate.
7. Information obtained from the ADGA office via telephone, telegram, etc. shall not be accepted in lieu of the document specified above.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS: Wyoming law requires all out of state goats be accompanied by a valid health certificate. Health certificates will be examined at time of check in. Diseased or injured animals will be removed from the grounds upon recommendation of the show committee. Animals deemed unworthy of competition by the show committee may be barred from competition and removed from the grounds. In such cases, pen and entry fees submitted by owner will be forfeited. Scrapie ID recommended.

All goats must be dehorned or naturally polled.

Milk out at your own discretion. Over-uddered does will be discriminated against.

Contact Show Chairman for any special needs.

CHAMPION CHALLENGE: Permanent Champions may show in either the regular or Challenge class, whichever the owner chooses. The Grand Champion of the same show must show in the class, and the winner of it shall be called the "Best of Breed." If the Grand Champion of the day does not win this class, she will not compete in the "Best in Show" class, the winner of the challenge class will
